

Hi! I'm a China-based freelance curator, translator & arts manager.
 I grew up in a very small nuclear family and a very big extended family.
 I went to schools in China, New Zealand, Canada and the UK, and I'm fascinated by people and cultures from around the world:)

My Work crosses cultures, disciplines & institutional platforms.

The purpose is to engage, connect and empower by giving voice to alternative narratives, facilitating meaningful dialogues, supporting opened-ended processes, and encouraging equal access & participation.
